

Press Release for The Grelen Depot

- A Market at Grelen Property -

Orange, Virginia - The Market at Grelen is thrilled to announce the opening of its newest venture, The Grelen Depot. With historic preservation, art and beauty in mind, this versatile property was thoughtfully renovated and designed by Grelen Co-Owner, Leslie Gregg. Located in the town of Orange, Virginia, her goal was to restore this classic old world building with creativity and charm adding to the character of its adorable Main Street. The ultimate vision was to glamorize the exterior while creating a variety of small elegant indoor venue spaces that compliment The Market at Grelen. The end result is a contemporary building that exudes warmth and a bit of European flair.

The Grelen Depot boasts high ceilings, ample natural light, an art gallery, bar and lounge areas as well as a loft space with a range of seating options. Each space has its own distinct personality and all can be used for a variety of events including weddings, rehearsal dinners, holiday parties, workshops, corporate retreats, and more. One or more spaces can be rented to create the perfect experience for the guest. Specifically there are three distinct event spaces: The Gallery, The Lounge & The Loft. The Gallery & Lounge work well together for a wedding ceremony and reception but also serve as an Art Gallery that will be open periodically for art openings. The Loft has a different vibe featuring whimsical neon signs and a retro lounge area that simply calls out for live music and fun!

Finally, The Depot also features a luxury two-room suite, called The 118. This space has a living room, bedroom and glamorous full bath. It was designed with honeymoon couples in mind, but makes for a perfect getaway for those looking to explore all that Central Virginia has to offer.

Known for a commitment to excellence and unparalleled customer service, Grelen is excited to introduce Central Virginia's newest premier event venue. Whether one is looking to host an intimate celebration, plan an unforgettable 50th birthday party or stay the night, The Grelen Depot is sure to please.
